

The Brookside Bridge

Keeping You Connected

Minister's Invitation

Baptizing our grandchildren is a divine blessing! This Sunday, two Migliori grandchildren will receive our promise of love, support, and care through baptism. Our spiritual art program is up and running and the youth music programs will begin right after church. In the Gospel story, Peter leads us into the language of forgiveness when he asks Jesus "How often should I forgive?" And receives the answer: Forever and always. The Brookside Singers (formerly Chancel Choir) will sing with us the songs of the Spirit. See you Sunday.

Religious Response to Hunger

It is time to help replenish the shelves at New Horizons. Mission Ministry asks for your help in collecting nonperishable food for the next two weeks. Donated food or donated money will be brought to Temple Adath Yeshurun who is coordinating an ecumenical gathering of food to be delivered to the food pantry at New Horizons. All donations should be brought to Brookside by September 24, or monetary donations made with Religious Response to Hunger in the memo line. Thank you for your efforts in addressing food insecurity within the greater Manchester area.

Circle of the Heart Adult Education

My summer reading focused on a magnificent book about several families in India from 1907 to 1980. Themes around healing, spirituality, love, grief, and family are expertly woven throughout the book. I can't wait to share this masterpiece with you.

On Monday, October 23 & Tuesday, October 24 I will lead a discussion about the book "The Covenant of Water" by Abraham Verghese. We will meet on Zoom from 6:00 pm to 7:30 pm on both evenings. The book is very thick and worth picking up as soon as possible. If you are unable to read it, I will send out a link to a podcast with Oprah Winfrey and Abraham Verghese so you can participate in our book group. Please register with the office and a Zoom link will be sent out to you before the discussion.
