Keeping You Connected

Minister's Message

We have seen the alignment of the sun and moon. We rejoice in the growth of new life in our gardens. Here at Brookside, we celebrate this Sunday God's alignment with our music programs. Please come to worship to meet Jordan Gravel, our new Music Leader. He is a music teacher at a public school in Massachusetts. He brings energy, enthusiasm, and a keen sense of building community at Brookside. Also beginning anew is our Junior Jam program and Youth Choir at 11:00-11:30, led by Heath Auger and Christina Alvarez. During worship, our youth will join Amber Nicole for spiritual art. Our theme for worship is A Garden of Love! Can't wait to see you on Sunday.

Sincerely,
Rev. Laura

Choir Members: Please join me in my office at 9:00 am to welcome Jordan Gravel as our Interim Music Leader.

Horton Center Scholarships Available

Scholarships are available for Brookside members who are registered to attend the Horton Center summer camp. Scholarship amounts will be determined based on the number of requests received. If you would like to request a scholarship, please email Sarah Peterson, Christian Formation Chair, at sarita201@gmail.com. The deadline for requests is April 30th.

News from Brookside's Kitchen Committee

A small group of representatives from each of the church Ministries met this past Sunday to begin planning for organization and care of the kitchens in Fellowship Hall and Manning House. In taking a quick tour we realized there are many items that do not belong to the church. Please take a look around and claim those items that are yours. Deadline for reclaiming your belongings is set for the KC's next meeting on Sunday, May 5.

News from Zimbabwe

Brookside has received updated emails from our Ukama partner at Sakubva Church. Here is a summary of the news:

The Reverend John Monjonjo ended his second term of an 8-year calling to serve our Ukama sister, Sakubva Church in Sakubva, Zimbabwe (16 years altogether). Rev. Monjonjo was serving as Sakubva's Pastor when we started our relationship in December 1996 and hosted several first delegation travelers from NHC/UCC to UCCZ in August 1997. Rev. Monjonjo and Rev. Bill Donoghue participated in monthly phone calls together with Mr. Liberty Dhliwayo, a member at Brookside born and raised in Zimbabwe. When 9/11/2001 occurred Rev. Monjonjo sent Rev. Donoghue and the people of Brookside Church a very touching letter of support. Rev. Monjonjo was recalled to Sakubva in 2015, completing his 8-year term in December 2023. He continued to work toward fellowship and communication between our two churches until he ended his role as pastor at Sakubva, moving on to a new calling at Fern Valley Church.

The new pastor at Sakubva Church is Rev. Samson Mhlanga. Rev. Mhlanga is also the National UCCZ Ukama Committee Chair. He is very excited to continue our Ukama relationship.

The Head Deacon for 2024 is Loice Mhlanga, the Ukama Chair is Ding Mhlanga, the Church Secretary is Annah Mercy Mhlanga, and the general membership representatives are Blessing Sithole and Sylvester Dhliwayo. (Now – you have to know that Mhlanga is as common a name in Zimbabwe as Smith or Brown is here – these folks are not all from the same immediate family J)

We look forward to communicating on a more regular basis with our Ukama sister, Sakubva Church.

Interfaith Women of NH - Thursday, May 9, 6:30 pm

Interfaith Women of NH is excited to offer a Spring event entitled Faith and Flowers: Enrich Your Soul. To be held on Thursday, May 9, 2024, at 6:30 pm at Temple Adath Yeshurun. Our program presenters will share how flowers reflect or represent aspects of each particular faith and how flowers contribute to the expression of faith, understanding how the presence, or absence of flowers may be of significance.

Our keynote speaker is Erica Jeanes owner and florist of the Bee Joyful Farm, a micro flower farm in Candia, NH. Erica is a Flower Farmer, an artist/ artisan, public speaker, and mother of 5 wonderful people. The first gardens were established in 1999. The garden beds are planted with a variety of striking flowers, with offerings changing each year as Erica explores her love of plants and indulges her green thumb. Erica will share her story of how following the death of her mother, creating her flower farm for all to enjoy helped heal her soul.

Simone Ali is a young Muslim woman who attends Goffstown High School. Among other things, Simone has been active in Young Organizers United (Y.O.U.) This group of smart, enthusiastic, and committed young people is part of the Granite State Organizing Project, a social justice organization.

Reverend Laura Biddle is the minister of Brookside Church, United Church of Christ in Manchester NH. She recently celebrated her 30th year of ordained ministry which began with women in prison in Framingham MA. She has been serving in Mass. churches since 1998 including Newburyport, Salem, Andover, Boxford, Weston, and Nahant. Brookside is her first Call in New Hampshire. She also is a trained grief counselor. For many years, she served as a Spiritual Advisor with military families grieving suicide. Rev. Laura has three married children and three grandchildren living near her.

Rabbi Beth D. Davidson is the spiritual leader of Temple Adath Yeshurun, a reformed Jewish community that has been part of Manchester's history for nearly 140 years. Rabbi Beth came to TAY in 2005. She has been active in interfaith programs over many years in New York, Tennessee, and New Hampshire and has contributed articles to publications produced by such groups as the National Conference for Community and Justice (NCCJ). In addition to her commitments within the Jewish Community, Rabbi Davidson is currently the President of the Greater Manchester Clergy Association, and a lecturer for OLLI, a local organization dedicated to ongoing adult learning. Though living amidst the Red Sox nation, she is still a devoted NY Mets, NY Giants, and NY Jets fan; Rabbi Beth has however, developed a firm attachment to the Manchester Fisher Cats.

This event will be provided on Thursday, May 9, 2024, at Temple Adath Yeshurun, 152 Prospect Street, Manchester 03104.

The program starts at 6:30 pm, check-in begins at 6:00 pm
Please RSVP to interfaithwomennh@gmail.com or call 603-233-7760

Spring Clean Up

Join the Stewardship Ministry on Saturday, April 27, and Saturday, May 4 from 9:00 to 1:00 pm as we clean up the Brookside grounds. ALL garden beds will need to be raked and weeded and all lawn areas need to have branches, pine cones, and litter picked up. Bring your work gloves and any tools (rakes, etc.). Wheelbarrows will be provided. All volunteers are greatly appreciated to help keep this large property looking spectacular! Many hands make light work!
